

Charmaine Bryan, founder of Charmaine Bryan Image Consulting helps mid-level professionals communicate their brand to advance in their career. She provides individual coaching and group programs to elevate their appearance, behaviour, communication and digital presence.

As a Certified Image and Corporate Consultant, Author and Speaker Charmaine has collaborated with organizations such as Rakuten Kobo Inc, Canadian Association of Urban Financial Professionals, Ontario Real Estate Association, Keller Williams Realty Solutions, Association of Administrative Professionals and Toastmasters International. Charmaine has appeared on Living 365 TV Network, Radio Regent, 360FM, the Rich Flow of Life and the Soft Power Podcasts.

As Deepika Anandakrishnan at Rakuten Kobo Inc says about her, "I loved Charmaine's presentation style and confidence/flair in getting the message across. If I could even follow 30 percent of Charmaine's recommendations, I know I would kill it in all my presentations!"

Charmaine has over 15 years' experience working in the non-profit and public sectors. Most recently in education policy, research, marketing and communications, fundraising, corporate sponsorship and project management.

As a member of Toastmasters International from 2014-2019, Charmaine delivered award winning speeches and achieved Advanced Communicator bronze and Advanced Leadership silver awards. She served as Vice President of Education in her club's executive team in 2016-2017. During 2017-2018, Charmaine served as a District Leader as an Area Director.

Charmaine is currently serving on the Canadian Association of Urban Financial Professional's Board as Director, Social Media.
